RE: U.S. Army Corps of Engineers Draft Environmental Impact Statement
Public Hearing Schedule

Dear State of Alaska Senator:

The Alaska Gasline Development Corporation (AGDC) would like all legislators to be informed and invited to the upcoming U.S. Army Corps of Engineers (USACE) Public Meetings on the ASAP Draft Environmental Impact Statement (DEIS) on the Alaska Stand Alone Gas Pipeline/ASAP Project.

Beginning February 13, 2012 and continuing through February 28, 2012, the USACE, along with staff from the cooperating agencies, and with representation from AGDC, will be holding public meetings in the communities below to collect public comments on the ASAP Project.

ASAP DEIS Public Meeting Schedule

- February 13, 2012: Kenai, Challenger Learning Center, 6PM
- February 16, 2012: Anaktuvuk Pass, Anaktuvuk Pass City Hall, 1PM
- February 21, 2012: Minto Village/Manley Hot Springs, Minto View Lodge, 12PM
- February 21, 2012: Fairbanks, Westmark Hotel, Yukon Room, 6PM
- February 22, 2012: Nenana, Tribal Hall, 5PM
- February 23, 2012: Cantwell/Healy/McKinley Village, Cantwell K-12 School, 12:30PM
- February 23, 2012: Talkeetna/Trapper Creek, 6:30PM
- February 24, 2012: Willow, Willow Community Center, 5PM
- February 27, 2012: Anchorage, Millennium Alaskan Hotel, 6PM
- February 28, 2012: Barrow, Inupiat Heritage Center, 6PM
- March 2, 2012: Wiseman/Coldfoot – Teleconference 1PM

The Alaska Gasline Development Corporation would like to invite you and any members of your staff to attend these meetings and provide comments. These meetings will include an introduction to all project team members in attendance, followed by a short presentation on the project provided by the USACE. Representatives from AGDC and other agencies will be on hand to answer questions and all comments will be recorded for the project record. Once the 45-day public comment period is over, the USACE will continue evaluating the DEIS. AGDC anticipates receiving the Environmental Impact Statement early summer, 2012.

Thank you for your interest in the progress being made on the Alaska Stand Alone Gas Pipeline/ASAP project. We look forward to the opportunity of seeing you at one of the upcoming Public Meetings.

Sincerely,

Daniel R. Fauske, President
Alaska Gasline Development Corporation
